ST. JOSEPH/ST. RAPHAEL PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

"We are a welcoming spiritual home that provides community and personal growth through liturgy, evangelization, the Word of God and a call to His service."

Pentecost Sunday B
 May 20, 2018

“Everything that the Father has is mine.”

My dear Family in Christ, today we finished the most beautiful season in our liturgical year and celebrate Pentecost that is called the birthday of the Church. I always think and desire that we can celebrate this day with a great big cake and a piñata! This day, we celebrate the beginning of our spiritual family and we need to be more aware to this day! God has been so good with us that He wants to continue doing mighty acts among us.

The perfect way that God continues to be presence among us is through his Church. Many times we can be confused because our church can talk in a very different tongue that our world does, but we need to remember that God talks in his own language. This feast helps us to understand the power and wisdom of our Creator, Pentecost reminds us that “no one can say, Jesus is Lord, except by the Holy Spirit,” In our second reading from Saint Paul to the community of Corinth, we heard that, “There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” God made this church for you and for me that we could testify the mighty deeds that God made for this world. The little white book finishes this year telling us that “Christians are optimists, and the Spirit is the reason for our optimism because the spirit makes good things happen even when we cannot.” I heard a beautiful story that occurred in a hospital institution, “one priest went to the area of oncology to visit some parishioners. When he was there he observed two different situations. He went to visit a woman that has cancer, she was very depress and was in a very bad mood. The family was very frustrated and sad because they wanted to help her. In the opposite room another woman with the same illness and pain but the priest can hear the family laughing and full of hope. Same situation but different source of hope. The second woman has her strength and hope in her God with the support of her family. She can say Jesus is Lord because during her life she looked and serve this Lord.

ST. JOSEPH CSA

The 2018 annual Diocesan Catholic Services Appeal will be conducted next weekend, and the theme is "Shining Christ's Light." Our parish goal is $27,978 and we would like to see all members make a gift to support this appeal. Once a year we are asked to make a commitment to support the work of our Diocesan programs and ministries which provide service that no single parish could provide on its own. This effort is a means by which we work together to care for the Church by sharing the gifts God has granted us. Our parish goal is 100% participation. Please take the time to prayerfully consider how you are able to support the CSA.

Stewardship by the Book - In the second reading today, St. Paul reminds the Corinthians, "There are different gifts, but the same Spirit; there are different ministries but the same Lord." How am I using my gifts "for the common good"?

Stewardship Reflections -

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." - 1 CORINTHIANS 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances; God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God's plan to work, each must do what we are called to do and guess what - we are not all called to do the same thing!

Family Perspective - Today, on Pentecost, we remember Christ has given us the Holy Spirit to assist us in raising our family and he expects us to use this personal gift. Let's turn-off the noise, apps and distractions in our lives and let the Holy Spirit "guide us to the truth."

Promise to Protect; Pledge to Heal - In an effort to protect all children and to promote healing, the Diocese of Gaylord encourages victims of child abuse or neglect to report the matter. In fact, many professionals are required by Michigan State law to report suspected abuse or neglect of a child or minor. Individuals should contact their local office of the Department of Human Services. If an allegation involves sexual misconduct of a minor by clergy or any employee of the Diocese of Gaylord, even if it is in the past, individuals may also contact the Diocesan Victim Assistant Coordinator, Larry LaCross at 989-705-9010.

2018 Diocesan Conference - Save the date for the 2018 Diocesan Conference taking place September 21 & 22 at Treetops Resort in Gaylord. Entitled "This Little Light of Mine: Shining Christ's Light, Sunrise to Sunset," the conference will focus on ways to 'shine your light' in all facets of life and will even feature special breakout sessions for teens. Our Friday-night keynote speaker and emcee/musician for the weekend is internationally-renowned singer-songwriter Jesse Manibusan, author of "Open My Eyes," a hymn that has been published in many languages for both Catholic and Protestant Churches around the world.

Dr. Timothy O'Malley, Ph.D., director of the Center for Liturgy at the University of Notre Dame will present on Saturday. Bring your family for a weekend of faith and fun and take advantage of the special lodging and golf rates offered by Treetops. More information is available at www.dioceseofgaylord.org. Stay tuned as more presenters and a full schedule will be announced!

Big Ticket Music Festival - The Diocese of Gaylord is again an official sponsor for Big Ticket Festival 2018 being held June 20-23 in Gaylord. The Christian music festival is one of the largest faith-based events in the country featuring top musicians, speakers, activity and experience tents, sporting events, kids' zone and more. Just some of this year's headliners include Toby Mac, Michael W. Smith, Family Force 5, Jason Gray, Sidewalk Prophets and over 60 more artists and speakers! Big Ticket Festival offers participants opportunities to encounter Christ through fun, worship, entertainment, experiences, activities and speakers that teach, motivate, and inspire. Because of the diocese's sponsorship, a special Catholic discount is currently available. Full four-day festival passes are only $59 until May 15, 2018. (This is over 50% off the regular four-day pass price of $129.) For more information or to purchase tickets online, go to www.dioceseofgaylord.org and click on the link for Big Ticket Festival 2018. Tickets may also be purchased by stopping in to the Diocesan Pastoral Center in Gaylord.
