ST. JOSEPH/ST. RAPHAEL PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

"We are a welcoming spiritual home that provides community and personal growth through liturgy, evangelization, the Word of God and a call to His service."

Sixth Sunday of Easter C May 26, 2019

"Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him."

My Dear Friends in Christ, this Sunday's Gospel is one of the most popular Gospel for funerals, I really like the part where Jesus says to his disciples, "do not let your heart be troubled or afraid." I think this an incredible promise especially for the people who had lost a beloved one. I hope that every time that they hear this Gospel's words bring them some measure of peace.

When I reflect on Jesus' words for this Sunday, I realize that perhaps in order to find this peace that He is offering us today begin in our listening of his voice. Last week, I talked a little bit about how important it is to recognize the voice of our Shepherd and today I would like to continue talking about this.

It is our job to receive his words, to cultivate them, and to share his words with other people. I hope that you start to understand this essential truth that Jesus is telling us today, "whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him." I think it is a great promise for us who are the people that are looking to do the will of God in our lives.

I have seen God at work in our parishes through his words. We are celebrated God's gifts week after week, we are also able to see God at work in one another. Every time that we meet to study God's words and share with our brothers and sisters, God is helping us to be a more welcoming spiritual home for many people that come to worship with us. Every time that we open ourselves to take time to study and prepare our lessons in our bible group, we are providing for our growth in our spiritual life. Every time that we understand more deeply our faith and our liturgy, we are ready to go and proclaim this wonderful Good News to the people that we enter in contact every day.

I am pleased because I see that this process starts inside of us, it is something that comes first from outside by the inspiration of God when you pay attention to all of God's good gifts, by staying alert to what God is already doing for you and for the world.

This week in another excellent opportunity to keep the word of God in our lives, how do you find yourself thinking about the word of God that you heard this weekend? These words open your eyes to see how God is working among us and through us? The Word who became flesh and lived among us continues to wait for our answers to prepared our eternal dwelling with God.

Stewardship By the Book - Today's reading from Revelation offers a vision of the City of God, the new Jerusalem. "But," the bishops' pastoral on stewardship reminds us, "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now."

Vocation View - It is not that talents add up to a vocation; but that vocation brings talents. The Spirit of God lives within you!

Promise to Protect; Pledge to Heal - In an effort to protect all children and to promote healing, the Diocese of Gaylord encourages victims of child abuse or neglect to report the matter. In fact, many professionals are required by Michigan State law to report suspected abuse or neglect of a child or minor. Individuals should contact their local office of the Department of Human Services. If an allegation involves sexual misconduct of a minor by clergy or any employee of the Diocese of Gaylord, even if it is in the past, individuals may also contact Larry LaCross at 989.705.9010.

Family Perspective-by Bud Ozar - Today Jesus gives this advice: "Do not let your hearts be troubled." Worry and anxiety can consume our lives preventing us from seeing the love which surrounds us and binds us to one another. Don't miss the forest for the trees. We are living today what we worried about yesterday

Marriage Preparation Retreat - The Diocese will be offering an overnight marriage preparation retreat at the Augustine Center from August 10-11. Check in begins at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday with the retreat beginning at 10 a.m. The retreat will cover all modules not completed with the priest for only $150 and will include lunch and dinner on Saturday and breakfast Sunday. Registration is through the Rose Resource Center. More information is available through your local parish or by calling Seth Peters at 989-732-5147 Ext. 3522, (231) 340-0139 (cell), or speters@dioceseofgaylord.org.

Save the Date! - Save the date for our next ordination! Join Bishop Raica and your diocesan family as we celebrate the Ordination to the Priesthood of Deacon Mitchel Roman, and Ordination to the Transitional Diaconate of seminarian Benjamin Martin on Saturday, June 29, at 11:00 a.m. at St. Mary Cathedral in Gaylord. A Solemn Vespers will precede the ordination on Friday evening at 6:30 p.m., also at St. Mary Cathedral. Please join us with your prayers and presence.
